ANNUAL REPORT

2021

As New York City's largest poverty-fighting philanthropy, we fund, support, and connect community organizations operating in every corner of our city to provide New Yorkers living in poverty with the tools they need to build better lives. Despite the ongoing challenges posed by the pandemic, I am incredibly proud to present our Annual Report which documents the impact of our work over the last year.

Dear Friends,

As New York City's largest poverty-fighting philanthropy, we fund, support, and connect community organizations operating in every corner of our city to provide low-income New Yorkers with the tools they need to build better lives. The pandemic poses critical challenges to low-income New Yorkers, and I am incredibly proud to present this Annual Report which documents the impact our work has had on families in need over the last year.

The pandemic had a disproportionate impact on low-income New Yorkers, especially immigrants, people of color, and single-parent households. Because of your generosity, we were able to distribute more than $171 million in grants, making 2021 the second largest grantmaking year in our 33-year history.

Over those 33 years, you have enabled Robin Hood to invest more than $3 billion in the best frontline poverty-fighting programs across the city — schools, food pantries, homeless shelters, job training centers, health facilities, legal clinics, and more. Your financial support helps to sustain Robin Hood as New York City's largest private funder of emergency food assistance and supportive housing for the more than 1.5 million New Yorkers who are living in poverty.

Because our board covers all administrative expenses, 100% of your gift to Robin Hood goes directly to supporting New Yorkers in need. And because of the strategic partnerships we forge with government and our 425 community partners, we can leverage those investments by encouraging the city and state governments to expand the most effective poverty-fighting programs and by advocating for public policies that successfully address the obstacles facing the communities we serve.

In 2021, our work was organized around three pillars — getting families back on their feet, getting kids back on track, and getting New Yorkers back to work — in order to rebuild a new New York, one that provides every New Yorker with the opportunity to thrive. Your investment helped mitigate many of the harshest economic effects of the pandemic and advanced policies that put low-income New Yorkers on a permanent pathway out of poverty, all while paving the way for New York City's next great comeback.

In 2022, we'll continue partnering across the public, private, and nonprofit sectors using our data-driven approach to drive and scale solutions so that we can get one step closer to ending poverty — for good in New York City.

It will take a city. Are you with us?

Sincerely and gratefully yours,

Rich

HEROES BREAKFAST

Robin Hood returned to Cipriani for our 32nd Annual Heroes Breakfast to honor three of our community partners — NPower, Partnership for Children, and Touchdown NYC — through the stories of three remarkable New Yorkers who overcame adversity to build better lives for themselves and their communities.

INVESTORS CONFERENCE

We went virtual (again) for the 9th annual J.P. Morgan Robin Hood Investors Conference and brought together over 40 speakers in business, investing, academia, and policy — including HRH Prince Abdulaziz, Shawn “JAY-Z” Carter, Ray Dalio, Stanley F. Druckenmiller, Dawn Fitzpatrick, Paul Tudor Jones II, David Tepper, and Cathie Wood — to share actionable, money-making insights.

ANNUAL BENEFIT

In October 2021, we came back together again — in person — for the Robin Hood Annual Benefit at the Javits Center on the 20-year anniversary of the Concert for New York. We were joined by some of New York’s brightest stars — Paul McCartney, Alicia Keys, Bruce Springsteen, Cecily Strong, and the Jonas Brothers, to name a few — helping us to raise over $77 million to fight poverty in New York City.

NO CITY LIMITS

Our No City Limits conference went virtual in 2021 and successfully convened over 40 speakers across policy, nonprofit, business, academia, and community — including Chelsea Clinton, Senator Cory Booker, Marcella Nunez-Smith, José Andrés, and Ai-jen Poo — to discuss how we could reimagine the poverty fight. This event also marked Robin Hood’s first Mayoral Candidate Forum.
